Judge Yeakel,

US v. David A. Dickl

I am afraid I have a problem with my case that is significant. Mr. Orr and I have had a breakdown in our ability to work together.

I feel certain that imperative motions have not been filed on my behalf.

In particular I feel the prosecutor is guilty of misconduct. I have felt this way since my bond hearing where I believe lies were told knowingly and justice was compromised.

I also believe Steve has refused to carry out a few necessary steps in my defence with regard to witnesses.

I am writing so you are aware of these issues which I hope can be resolved in some manner.
